School Tax Boost Proposal Supported

The proposed 50-cent tax increase for the elementary schools here was defended Tuesday night at an open forum conducted by the Coordinating Council.

Speaking in favor of the increase were Mrs. Clark Casey, a member of the Board of Education, and Mrs. Claude Brown Jr., whose husband is running for the School Board in the election May 19.

In 1954-55, Mrs. Casey pointed out, taxes collected locally paid for 29.1 per cent of school needs, while state aid accounted for the remaining 73.9 per cent.

THREE YEARS later, however, in 1957-58, 61.3 per cent of the money to run our schools was raised locally and the state contributed only 38.7 per cent. This occurred as a result of a change in the state aid formula under which poorer school districts receive more money and those in the medium classifications less.

"This means," said Mrs. Casey, "that we are paying twice as much locally for child education as we were three years ago."

Mrs. Brown, representing the citizens committee which is supporting the tax increase, outlined reasons why the boost is necessary.

These include the growth of the city's school population, the need for more teachers and the necessity of building up the budget reserve which has dwindled to about $6,000.

THE TAX increase, incidentally, would cost each property owner with an assessed valuation of $3,000—the average here—$15 a year in additional school taxes.

No one spoke in opposition to the tax measure, although opponents were invited to attend. Mrs. Carl Cheadle, Coordinating Council president, presided.

At the May 19 election, voters will ballot on the increase and on two candidates running for two Board vacancies. Candidates are Kenneth Bush, Board president who is seeking re-election, and Mr. Brown. The deadline for filing is April 17.

Librarian, School Superintendent to Speak Wednesday

The Phoebe of the Congregational Church will meet Wednesday, April 15, at 8 p.m. at the parsonage, 101 Bonita, to hear Miss Ruth Cain, local librarian, tell about "Our Children and Our Library."

Robert Walker, superintendent of the Sierra Madre Schools, will discuss "The Needs of Our Schools" and answer questions.

A short business meeting will follow. Millie Solury will be co-hostess with Mary Lindsay.

Leukemia Is Fatal to Local Youngster, 3

A 3-year-old Sierra Madre youngster died April 1, a victim of leukemia.

Funeral services were held last Saturday in Ripple Mortuary Chapel for Anita Lynne George, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis I. George Jr., 397 W. Montecito. Interment was in Forest Lawn.

Survivors include two sisters, Laurie Marie and Bonnie Lucile; a brother, Alan Lewis George; and paternal and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis I. George Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pickett, all of Sierra Madre.

ST. PAUL VISITOR

Mrs. William T. Shillcock, who has been spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Lola Ree Hull, 609 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., has returned to her home in St. Paul, Minn.

Library Display Featured

A special display of more than 100 new books recently added to the collection of the Sierra Madre Public Library will be one feature of National Library Week here.

The Friends of the Library has also chosen this period to hold a used book drive, the proceeds from which will be used to buy new books for the library, thereby aiding in the achievement of national library standards for Sierra Madre.

THE SALE will be conducted at the Library April 16, 17 and 18, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily.

Eric Borg of Sierra Madre will display his unusual collection of playing cards at the library during National Library Week. The collection features complete decks of cards ranging from priceless miniatures to choice decks of international fame.

CIRCULATION of books at the Sierra Madre Library, incidentally, has doubled since the building was opened in 1955, according to figures released by Miss Ruth Cain, head librarian.

In May of 1955, for example, 4,024 books were checked out. By January of 1959, the figure had risen to 8,396. The increase has been steady nearly every month for the past four years, with the exception of a few dips.

More books apparently are read in March than in any other month, while September seems to be the "low reading month."

In March of 1948, approximately 700 more volumes were circulated than in February of that same year. In September, 1958, the circulation dropped to 6,472. This same pattern is evident each year since 1955.

Local Students Honored for Top Grade Averages

Seven Sierra Madre students were honored by being named Sealbearers when Pasadena High School chapter of California Scholarship Federation held its last meeting.

These students have maintained a 3.6 grade average for the past three semesters.

They are Toddy Draeger, Gail Higgins, Helen Hippenstiel, Pete James, Louise Lauder, Nino Leonardi and John Porter.

The East Unit, including East Pasadena and Sierra Madre, will meet April 16 at the home of Mrs. Conrad Walberger, 510 Pembroke, Pasadena.

Members are asked to bring a guest and sandwiches. Coffee and salad will be served after the study discussion of foreign policy. Mrs. Carl Schafer will talk on League activities. The public is invited.

Winners in First Tennis Match Named

Winners in the first annual junior tennis tournament were announced yesterday by the Tennis Club and the Sierra Madre Recreation Department.

A total of 45 youngsters entered the tournament under the direction of Mrs. Norma Landwehr.

WINNER in the boys' division from 10 to 14 was William Schuler, who defeated Robert Willis in the finals. In the 15 to 18 division, the winner was Larry Morse who edged out William Daws.

In the girls' group, Rosemarie Wittig was defeated by Portia Webster.

The local Tennis Club is sponsoring an open doubles

Wells Fargo Author Gives Books to Library

Frank Gruber, dean of Wild West authors in the book, TV and motion picture fields, yesterday dispatched a collection of especially autographed editions of his western novels to the Friends of the Sierra Madre Library to be auctioned off at the library's benefit book sale April 16, 17 and 18.

Inscribed in the author's handwriting to "A special friend of the Sierra Madre Library," the books include "Blitter Sage," on which a well-known motion picture was based, and "Tales of Wells Fargo," stories from Gruber's highly rated TV series of the same title. The westerns are all publications of Bantam Books, Inc.

Gruber became interested in the Wistaria City's book sale, designed to raise funds for purchase of new volumes to stock the library shelves, when he read a newspaper report of the event's slogan—"Be Friendly—With a Book!"

Pasadena Board Delays Pay Study

Requests for a serious study of a wage hike and Social Security benefits for local employees of the Pasadena school system received a three-month standoff by the Board Tuesday night.

The Board, while it referred both requests to the administration, was reluctant to order a study until it knows the outcome of the State Legislation providing survivors' benefits under the present state retirement system. The outcome will be known in June.

MILTON L. MOST, representative of Local 606, Pasadena School Employees, AFL-CIO, who said the group represents about 200 of the estimated 900 classified employees, made both requests of the Board.

He agreed that the cost of Social Security benefits, if all the classified employees ask for them, would probably run about $95,000 a year.

He said, however, that the employees would not have to take Social Security benefits if they did not wish to do so.

DR. ROBERT E. JENKINS, superintendent of schools, indicated to the Board that no serious study of the Social Security request should be undertaken until the outcome of the amendment to the State Retirement Act is known.

Mr. Most had pointed out that the present retirement system has no benefits for survivors.

He also told the Board he will soon request a specific wage hike figure.

HE SAID that the chief administrative officer of Los Angeles County estimates wages will rise 11 per cent in the next two years.

"The policy of Pasadena in past years has been to pay wages about average of other public jurisdictions and private. The quantity and quality of the work as I have observed it is above average," he told the Board.

Local Firm Wins High Award

Filmstrip Distributors, a new firm on E. Montecito, has won the Blue Ribbon Award at the American Film Festival held last week at the Hotel Statler in New York City.

The award was for the company's filmstrip series, "This Is Central America." It was accepted in behalf of the company by Miss Alberta T. Ellison, New York representative of the firm.

THE SERIES was cited for its unique production and outstanding photography in the category, "Education and Information: Geography and Travel." Competition was open to educational films produced in 1957-58, and the awards are considered comparable to "Oscars" in the motion picture industry.

"It is gratifying, indeed," said Mrs. Anne E. Cotter, general manager of the company, "to receive the honor of this endorsement of our product, and particularly so for a company which began operations less than six months ago."

THE FILM, produced by Russ and Nita Rosene, will be distributed among schools, colleges and educational groups.

Filmstrip Distributors is a partnership of three persons who have been closely associated for years. They are Mrs. Cotter, Mrs. Edith H. Fish and Arthur C. Sloman.

Babe Ruth Team Practice Session Slated Saturday

Team practice sessions for the Babe Ruth Baseball League will be held at 9 a.m. Saturday at the La Salle High School diamond for the first time this season.

The four teams will each add five 13-year-old players as the result of tryouts held the two previous Saturdays.

All returning players and adult leaders from last season are to report to the field by 9 a.m. along with the new players and adults. Each boy is to bring his completed registration card.

Police Swamped By Calls in False Alarm

Local police were literally swamped with 118 phone calls Saturday night at about 9:30 o'clock when the air raid alarm went off by mistake and created a general state of confusion.

Civil defense authorities surmised that the false alarm was triggered by a short circuit or a ham radio operator. To compound the fright, a brace of jets cruised over Altadena in the midst of the siren's wailing.

One individual, according to Tommy-Ann Miller in "Around the Square," reportedly headed for a well-stocked mountain cave, while another dug a slit trench in the iris bed.

Chamber Dinner Is Home-Made

The Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce annual membership dinner next Monday evening in the Congregational Church will be strictly a "home town" production.

Even the installing officer, Don Miller, is a local resident. President-elect of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce, he lives at 303 Manzanita.

Vocal music will be supplied by Mrs. Robert Schaper, wife of the pastor of Bethany Church, and Rev. George Lindsay of the Congregational Church will deliver the invocation. Mayor Charles H. James will be master of ceremonies.

Tickets are being handled by David Reoss, arrangements chairman; Don Jackson, Larry Lomax, John Curtis, Tom Schwartz, Juanita Perry and Robert Green.

Dinner will be served at 7 p.m.

son are to report to the field by 9 a.m. along with the new players and adults. Each boy is to bring his completed registration card.

Two Badly Injured In Head-on Collision

Five Sierra Madreans were injured, three seriously, in a head-on auto collision last Saturday afternoon near Twenty-Nine Palms.

Also seriously hurt was a housewife from Joshua Tree and two of her three children. The State Highway Patrol said the woman was driving on the wrong side of the road when the crash occurred.

Most seriously injured was James Cassidy, 35, of 147 W. Grand View, driver of the group of Sierra Madre adults and children who were on their way to a camp-out at Joshua Tree National Park.

MR. CASSIDY suffered several broken ribs and severe internal injuries. He underwent emergency surgery for three hours at St. Bernadette Hospital in San Bernardino. He was on the critical list, but hospital authorities said his condition is improving satisfactorily.

If complications do not develop, he may be moved in about a week to a hospital closer to home.

Also injured were James McCoy, 35, of 232 Ramona, who was taken to Ince Memorial Hospital in Twenty-Nine Palms; the 9-year-old Cassidy boy, Pat; Mr. McCoy's 9-year-old son, Craig, and Chris Carlson, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carlson, 277 Ramona.

Another boy in the car, Douglas Birch, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Birch, 234 Ramona, was not hurt.

THE DRIVER of the other car, Mrs. Betty Elliott, 25, and two of her children, David, 8, and Brenda, 5, were seriously injured. They also are in Ince Memorial Hospital.

Mr. McCoy suffered several broken ribs, a lung injury, a fractured left arm and a sprained right arm. He cannot be moved from the Ince Hospital until Saturday.

The Cassidy youngster's head was badly cut and his nose injured. He is in St. Luke Hospital, Pasadena, in good condition. Craig McCoy and Chris Carlson, both of whom sustained minor cuts, are at home.

THE ACCIDENT happened on a side road, three miles south of the Twenty-Nine Palms Highway, when the two cars collided on a curve. The steering wheel of the Cassidy car was broken in three places.

Police said Mrs. Elliott was unable to explain what had happened. She has been charged with driving on the wrong side of the road.

Area Group OKs New Committees

The newly formed Foothill Areas Improvement Association adopted by-laws and picked committee members at a meeting April 7 in City Hall.

The organization was founded to promote better development of the Sierra Madre canyon area.

Committee members, appointed by Chairman Bob Imus, are:

Mary Bates, housing; Marilyn Thorne, membership; Mercer Duff, projects; Maurice Perkins, civic and legal; Leslie Chapman and David Kevorkian, health and safety, and Jim Mears, publicity.

Following the appointments, the group discussed the canyon pool. Some want a playground, some a park and others a parking lot.

The organization will meet again at 8 p.m., April 13, in City Hall.

Obtain Hi-Fi For Youth Dances

The Sierra Madre Recreation Department has obtained a new hi-fi record player for its alternate Saturday night dances at the Sierra Vista Youth Hut.

Director Dave Sommers said the dances, which are free of charge, have been highly successful.

He added that plans are being made to issue membership cards to all Sierra Madre teenagers, as a control measure, against "uninvited out-of-town guests." The cards will be issued April 25.

Those who did not sign up for membership at the last dance may do so at the next affair, April 11, at 8 p.m.

No one will be admitted in levis, capris, pedal pushers, etc. Dress will be casual sportswear. All cars drivers are requested to park in the lot directly in front of the swimming pool.

THE SLEEPING BEAUTY OF LORELAND is carefully guarded by two fairies at the Arcadia Children's Theater. The play will be presented in Arcadia High School April 18 at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Wayne Glausser and Mrs. Frank Newmann are handling tickets. The fairies are, from left, Lynn Bohart and Carolyn Martin. The other youngsters are Grant Moore and Robert Goldberg. All are from Sierra Madre.

Mr. P. of S.M.

Now comes Mr. Anthony Pinelli who has lived among us for, lo, these many years and, according to reports, a finer man never trod the sidewalks of dear old S.M.

So be it! But the daily press tells us that Mr. P. is really not the courtly gentleman of finance he appears, but a viper instead.

In truth, Mr. P. is neither. He is simply a businessman who has been engaged for many years in enterprises somewhat on the nether side of the law. Also, judging by reports, he is a highly successful businessman. He has managed to amass large amounts of property and cash—a prime requisite of success in our business economy—and, furthermore, he has been in jail only for a trifling six months.

AND UNDOUBTEDLY, Mr. P. has written off his one conviction for bootlegging as a gross miscarriage of justice, since the art of making bathtub gin, home brew and good corn liquor was practiced by all and sundry during Prohibition.

He also has eluded the Internal Revenue agents for approximately the last four decades, and that's an accomplishment of which many politicians and legitimate businessmen cannot boast.

So if Mr. P. is a crook, as the daily papers claim, he is an exceedingly sharp crook and, judging by the hosannas uttered in his behalf among the local citizenry, he is more to be admired than censured or, heaven forbid, jailed.

MR. P. WILL appear before the so-called Rackets Committee in Washington. He probably won't have much to say, and then he'll return to Sierra Madre to resume his life of repose.

The least we can do for him upon his return, I believe, is to hold a testimonial dinner in his honor. For he has put Sierra Madre on the map. Mr. P. should be treated with respect and consideration, for, who knows, if we offend him he may move away.—H.W.E.

Lee Shippey asks
What Do
You Think?

I fear that few of us fully appreciate the painstaking labor and deep thought which many of the sponsors of radio and television programs expend in our behalf.

For instance, take the coffee packagers who are so selective they choose only one coffee bean out of every four. Just think what a task it must be to divide up even a ton of coffee beans into groups of four, and then to compare them, bean against bean, so as to select only the one which is most perfect by every test.

NOW DO not protest that that isn't quite the way they do it. For how else can they do it? They only way to select one bean out of every four is to select one bean out of every four. And far be it from us to even intimate that any TV sponsor would even think of stretching the truth.

What puzzles me, though, is that there is any unemployment, when such painstaking efforts to give us the best are made. Is must take a lot of counters, computers and testers to pick out the best bean in every four in a single ton of coffee beans, but that one company must process many tons every day.

And what do they do with the three tons they must discard for every one they choose? Do you suppose they throw all that away? Or is that what they make instant coffee from? No, it can't be, for the very commercial which tells of the one-in-four selectivity also boasts of instant coffee. No, they must simply throw away the other three-fourths.

BUT WHAT an expense it must be to have to buy four tons of coffee beans for every ton the company wishes to process. And they do all that just to make things pleasanter for us. We certainly should appreciate their efforts—or their nerve in making claims—more than we do.

I HAVE no idea what the nuclear-powered submarine Skate cost, but it certainly wasn't any cheap Skate.

SEEMS TO ME our only solid ground for boasting that we haven't budgeted an inch is that, instead, we've budgeted a mile. Our overall aim is to win the battle for the minds of men, and where are we doing that?

The Marshall Plan and Nato halted the spread of Communism in Europe, the Truman Doctrine halted it on the borders of Greece and Turkey, the United Nations, led by us, halted it in Korea. Similar leadership could have saved Tibet but all the leaders chose to look the other way. And now Red China is growing at India. If India goes down the drain a lot of other nations will go with it.

If there's any truth in the claim that it banishes yellow, a lot of the world's statesmen must brush their backbones with Pepsodent. Before it is too late, our na-

De Sapio May Be GOP's Secret Weapon

By Robert G. Spivack

HERBERT LEHMAN AND CARMINE DE SAPIO — The Democratic Party, as everyone knows, is a collection of smaller political parties, each with a special background and special appeal. The "party" has never, as such, been a cohesive, tightly-knit political organization.

To many Northerners there are the "Southern" Democrats, often spoken of as a single bloc. Actually there are Southern Democrats who speak for the "New South," such as Lister Hill, Albert Gore, Estes Kefauver, and Ralph Yarborough. Then there are Southern Democrats who speak for special interests, such as Speaker Sam Rayburn, Lyndon Johnson, Sens. Spessard Holland, John McClellan, Robert Kerr and others of the oil or private power bloc.

Besides these there are the Southern Democrats who speak and yearn for the "Old South" with its suppression of the Negro citizen. In this group belong Sens. James O. Eastland, Strom Thurmond, Richard Russell, and Herman Talmadge.

With a presidential campaign coming up, the Republican Party undoubtedly will make much of the North-South split in the opposition and that is perfectly acceptable political operating procedure. It would be surprising if the Republicans did not make the most of these cleavages — and still others they could exploit.

THE DEMOCRATS, however, have another problem besides "The South" and unless it is faced squarely they are likely to find themselves on the outside, looking in, at The White House as they did in 1952 and 1956. It's the question of big-city "bossism" which seems to grow, with each passing year, rather than diminish.

Right now the New York Democratic organization, still smarting from its resounding defeat at the hands of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, is engaged in a bitter struggle between reactionary machine politicians, headed by Tammany Boss Carmine DeSapio, and a liberal bloc led by former Sen. Herbert H. Lehman, Eleanor Roosevelt and former Air Secretary Thomas Finletter.

In terms of getting maximum personal publicity and trying to create the illusion that he is a "new" kind of Tammany boss, DeSapio has done very well for himself. In terms of ending the sort of political corruption that characterized the O'Dwyer Administration in New York, DeSapio has been a colossal flop. Those who know tell me that in many ways things are worse now than they were 10 years ago.

MADE TO ORDER FOR THE GOP—Sen. Lehman recently spoke in Washington on the disintegration of the Democratic Party in New York under DeSapio. He recalled how New York had long led the nation in liberal leadership and in the field of ideas. In 9 of the last 10 Democratic conventions, he noted wistfully, a New Yorker was either nominated or a leading contender.

Now all that has changed. The image the American voter has of the New York Democrat is either the sleek DeSapio or the blurred image of Mayor Robert Wagner, who has been called by some critics a "municipal Eisenhower," equally — meaning and equally indecisive.

In carrying his fight against DeSapio, Lehman makes the point that it was the boss' ruthless tactics in the 1958 Buffalo convention that cost the Democratic ticket its victory. "I might add that on every occasion I can remember when the bosses have won, the results at the succeeding general election has been disastrous," Lehman said.

Until the image of DeSapio-ism is destroyed, Lehman added, he doubts that New York can even have much influence at the Los Angeles Democratic convention.

WHAT THE senator means, of course, that he doubts New York can have any positive influence. It's negative influence, so long as DeSapio remains, will be considerable. And it's made to order for smart Republican publicity men who will tell voters that a Democratic victory will be a victory for the Eastlands of the South and the DeSapios of the North.

This is likely to be the GOP propaganda line despite another observation made by Lehman, a point that will probably get lost in a national campaign.

"In most other states, the Democratic Party organizations have become more and more democratic," he notes. "In one state after another the power of the old-line party bosses—the Hagues of New Jersey, the Pendergasts of Missouri and the Crumps of Tennessee — has been broken upon the rock of public disapproval."

What it all boils down to is this: "Boss" DeSapio—unless he quits—could end up being the Republican's secret weapon for 1960.

Around the Square

By Tommy-Ann Miller

How many people snatched up their canned goods and bottled water and dived under the bed during the half-hour air raid siren goaf, Saturday night? Some evidently took time to swamp our police station with telephone calls ("Is it a REAL raid? "What shall we DO?" etc.). To compound the night's fright, a brace of jets cruised over Altadena in the midst of the siren's wailing.

Civil Defense leaders guessed that the false alarm was probably triggered off by a short-circuit or else by a ham radio operator. (Why have such a ticklish alarm system?)

Townpeople reacted in varied ways: some 1. closed windows and battened down hatches, 2. helped jam the phone lines, 3. ran into the streets to scan the skies, 4. jumped into autos and drove aimlessly about, 5. raised the ante and went on with the game. One far-sighted individual reportedly headed for a well-stocked mountain cave, while another chap dug a slit trench in the Irish bed.

ACCORDING to Civil Defense authorities, should an air raid ever occur (heaven forbid), first the Air Force signals Sacramento — and then the state capital instantly (and simultaneously) teletypes the warning to every Civil Defense station throughout California. Individual counties then set off local sirens.

PAINT PRIZE. A sizeable group of ticket-clutchers turned up at the dinner hour drawing for Arnold's second annual Parking Lot Sale. The only winners present (others were notified later) were Arthur and Annabelle

Fox—whose winning number (drawn by little daughter, Mary—hmmmm, a fix?)—entitled them to a gallon of paint.

The unique three-day sale lured practically everybody in town to give outdoor bargains the glance-over—and a few people walked off empty-handed ("but no household is complete without an Archimedean screw!").

CURRENT HOUSEGUEST at the Lester Layton home is Mrs. Fannie C. Helms, who flew out from Bethpage, Long Island, N. Y., where she had been living with her grandson. Although Mrs. Helms sold her home here in 1946, she returns frequently for friendly visits.

BROWNIE BORGAS? A salad consisting of whipped cream, green pepper and cinnamon red dots on top of pineapple slices was the coup de cuisine concocted by two Brownies — reportedly working for a badge — (Badge-smudge — call the doctor!) The girls served it to the family (along with tacos) and at last report all dinners had survived.

FIRST WESTERN Bank is full of sand, saddles and spiders as they mark their third anniversary here by doing up the bank and employees in Western style.

SALTON SKIERS. A shiny new 17-foot outboard motor boat was delivered Saturday to Don and Betty Stuart (and son, Mike), who dunked the craft in the Salton Sea for a wet run, Sunday. The Stuarts, who like to water ski, presently are docking their 50 horsepower beauty in the driveway—a sea-worthy sight!

Oh, this is SUCH a joyous week coming up. This is the week we are privileged to pay our property taxes AND our income taxes. I always get a feeling this time of year that persons must have holes in their heads to own a piece of property. I'll never understand how property taxes can go up, up, UP when the condition of the property must necessarily deteriorate by time. I guess after the first year it gets in the antique class and everyone knows that antiques increase in value with age.

I am just wondering how the tax assessor is going to evaluate all those little grass shacks in Hawaii. I'll bet some of the natives will wonder whether the fight to get in was worth it when tax time rolls around. Seriously though, smile, be a good sport. It's only money after all, and you can't afford to sit around and cry. You have to get busy and earn NEXT year's taxes. SMILE!

THE GEORGE AMTHOR home on Barhite was the scene of much convivial activity last weekend. On Saturday their son, Grant Michael, celebrated his seventh birthday with an Indian pow-wow which included 25 little braves. After an herb hunt which yielded peanuts enough to make everyone sick they were served refreshments in the patio which was decorated like an Indian camp. Their favors were all in the Indian motif.

On Sunday their supper club had a community dinner there. It turned out to be a surprise shower for Mr. and Mrs. Jim Germain. The Germain's are expecting their seventh child almost momentarily. The other members of the club figured it was high time the daddy figured in a shower, and although her gifts were typical, Mr. Germain's gifts will long be remembered for their originality. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Ralph Paquette, John Wiles, Gerald Ferracane, Ben Rogers and Norman Stube.

On Monday, the senior Amthors, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Amthor, left for their home in Grand Rapids, Mich. They have been visiting here since Christmas.

MRS. JOHN D. Sorenson of Calvert Road and Mrs. Edward Bignell of Upper Hastings are all nicely tanned and refreshed. The two of them took off last week for an enjoyable, though short, vacation in Palm Springs.

THE DAN ROGERS of Old Grove Road held a farewell dinner party at their home last Saturday night. They plan on moving into their new home this coming weekend. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Horn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henke, Mr. and Mrs. William Huse and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams.

WHEN THE Kinneola Mesa Association does anything they believe in doing it right. Last Saturday night they had a real Western Hoot-down party, complete with western dress. A group of 28 couples met at the William F. Nash home for a warm-up cocktail party. From there they all went down to the Westerner for dinner. The committee had artfully decorated the entire room in western fashion, with saddles, hay stacks, red checked cloths and lanterns. In other words, it was impossible not to have gotten into the mood. After dinner there was dancing and much hilarity was achieved with cheat dances and broom dances. I rather imagine the turnout will be much greater if they repeat this type of party next year.

I WAS FINALLY able to reach the William Baughs. They moved into their new home at 1401 Edge Cliff Lane over eight weeks ago and only recently were able to get a phone. I asked her how she had managed and she quoted it hadn't been easy. Between her son Rusty's accident on a school play-

MRS. WILLIAM SCRIBNER is modeling the mink stole which will be awarded some lucky person at the benefit fashion show and luncheon being planned by members of St. Luke Hospital Auxiliary April 15 at Altadena Town and Country Club. From left, Mrs. Bert Scandelle, benefit co-chairman, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Harry Patterson, reservation chairman, and Mrs. Joseph Tampico.

UP ON ...

Hastings Hill

More than a third of Hastings Ranch voters turned out to help sweep two new men into office as members of the City Board of Directors—Grant Changstrom and Matt Linton. The pair soundly trounced Mayor Seth Miller and Milton Brenner for the jobs. The new members will take office the first of May, and then the seven directors will sit down to pick a new mayor.

Dance Club members will frolic Saturday night at their monthly party using a "Spring Is Here" theme. Want to bet the weather is not cooperative? Anyhow the fun is being arranged by Polly and Karl Johnson, Dot and Dan Taylor, Marge and Tom Bickler and Perla and Helmut Vorster.

More Spring party plans include:

The annual Las Jardineras party where members take their husbands out for dinner and dancing. This one is April 24 in the Forrest Room.

April 25 is the big night for sixth and seventh graders from Hastings who were enrolled in Gene DeWald's dancing classes this year, because they will practice all they've learned at their grand ball at the Dewald studio in San Gabriel.

May 2 will find Hasty Hens and Ranch Wrens celebrating Spring or something with their annual dancing party at the Flamingo in Arcadia.

Fred and Lee Gillette and family will be in Cuba for several months. The Harold Davidsons are touring in their comfortable new trailer. John Sheltons have moved, he being transferred to South Bend.

All of Ann Roberts friends were excited and pleased to hear she had received the $100 McBride award for the best landscape in oils, for her picture which is now on display at Pasadena Art Museum. The exhibit, sponsored by Pasadena Society of Artists, opened last Sunday and will continue through May 12.

Seems as though some of the members of Girl Scout Troop 346 who had participated in making Easter tray favors for the patients at St. Luke Hospital, and had been in attendance at the troop's slumber party at the Mayhews, had their names left out of last week's release. To correct "matters," Judy Mayhew, Suzanne Roudenbush, Suzanne Reinhardt, Susan Roberts and Lois Williams took part in both events.

It's good to know Joanie Kaponya is getting along nicely after her unusual mishap. She and another Paul pooled their money to buy a sun lamp to maintain that tan which is so all important to the teenagers. Following a comparatively short exposure, with her eyes closed, Joanie received first and second degree burns on the corners of her eyes. For several days, she was unable to open her eyes and her vision was impaired. However, aside from her eyes being highly sensitive, she's almost as good as new.

Troop 382
Has First

Sixth-Year Observations of A Little League Manager

By John B. DuBois

'Twas brillig, and the slithy toves did gyre and gimble in the wabe. All mimsy were the borogoves—and Little Leaguers everywhere!

'Twas brillig. And on the bleak plains of Hamilton Park (a reservoir is a reservoir) stood huddled the great masses of Little Leaguers—living evidence of this fertile slope. Behind this nervous mass stood the ranks of Star Spangled Motherdom.

AND BEHIND Motherdom stood the Gimlet Eyed Winterbottom, watching the latter's last two syllables of the former. Watching. Taking notes. And watching.

Meanwhile, back on the bench sat the Mighty Managers of Hastings Ranch Little League. The Builders of Men. Americana Solidified. They studied the boys. Noted their agility, their stance, their speed, their coordination, their attitude. Could they catch? Know first base? Even see the ball?

'Twas brillig. And the Mighty Managers—the Great Builders of Men and All That—watched. And took notes. . . two points for being able to pick up the bat. . . a point for finding home plate. . . three minus for being barefoot. Prolific notes. Everything 'twas prolific. For 'twas brillig upon the fertile slopes of Hastings Ranch.

And behind the Mighty Managers—that Red, White and Blue of Suburbia—still stood the Gimlet Eyed Win-

Tuna Crab Points to Top Fishing

By Al Miyodi

THE ALIENS—At exactly 5:20 a.m. Easter Sunday, the first Alien was discovered in the Cabrillo Beach surf by an old man.

"It's a baby lobster," he reported.

Outwardly, it was not an eventful discovery. Then later in the day, as thousands upon thousands of these tiny crustaceans huddled themselves on the beach, marine biologists from the Department of Fish and Game made positive identification.

The intruders: Tuna crab. Indeed, as the old man reported, the crab is much like a lobster, bright red, complete with whiskers and pincers. But they're miniatures—3-inchers.

Where was the significance?

Easter Sunday marked their third visit to California waters in the last 100 years. In 1859, it is recorded, the tuna crab first appeared briefly in Monterey Bay. Then 82 years later, they reappeared in Santa Monica Bay, from Redondo Beach to Paradise Cove.

The tuna crab is a warm water lover. And where the tuna goes (bigger ones, like the bluefin, yellowfin).

And others follow (like skipjack, dolphin).

FISHY YEAR—This year, DFG marine biologists confidently (particularly after the tuna crab discovery) expect the water temperature to hit 70°.

Even now the difference in temperature between Magdalena Bay (Baja Calif.) and Zuma Beach is a short five degrees.

And it follows that the hotter the weather, the hotter the fishing.

So, how hot the fishing?

Well... For the first time within memory, yellowtail have made a successful spawn (witness the 4-pounders being taken daily) off local waters—previously, the closest point of their spawning area had been the Cedros Islands, 400 miles south of Los Angeles Harbor.

Jack Rae, of Santa Monica Sportfishing, says his bait men have netted baby yellowtails only inches long.

And off Paradise Cove last week, commercials put down a net within sight of the pier, came up with 48 yellowtails in the 30-pound class.

Barracuda? Last year, 770,000 (a record) scooters were taken. This year, estimates the DFG, the take will hit an easy 1,000,000!

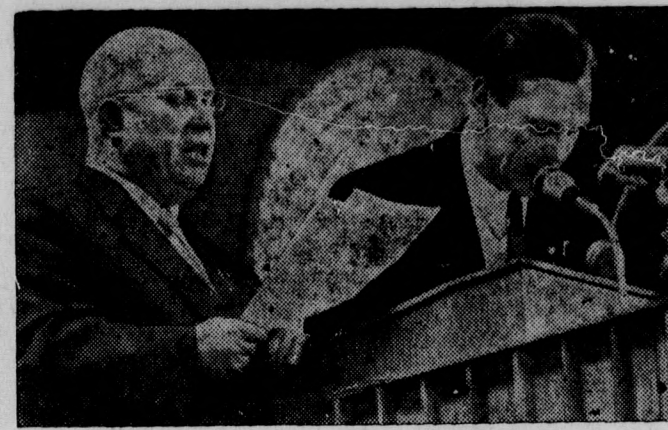

Skippers like Jack Ward also share the DFG's enthusiasm.

Ward, who skippers the Gentleman out of Paradise Cove, is fully confident he will break the Cove's all-time barracuda taken within the next month.

"All I need," says Ward, "is for the water to warm up just a flick."

And the tiny red tuna crab.

WINNERS—Otto A. Peters Jr., 117 E. Las Tunas Dr., San Gabriel; Mrs. Debra Lee, 4919 Kinsie Ave., L.A., and Cliff Granger, 4241 E. Live Oak, Arcadia—each will receive a free fishing pass. Contest runs weekly, best gripes (about fishing) come up a winner. Address all love-letters to me: 3506 Muscatel Circle, Rosemead.

MR. K. TALKS... Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, left, said in East Berlin that a four-power contingent could remain in Berlin if the city were declared a "free city."

Garden Notes...

Fine Lawn Requires Proper Selection of Seed

The type of grass we grow can make such a difference. So often at planting time we get carried away. Our mind's eye pictures a future putting green and we plant accordingly—heavy on Bents and other fine-bladed grass. Come summer and we do something else when we should be watering. The results:

Trouble. Not to discourage the amateur greenskeeper who will really give a lawn the attention it deserves. His "green" can be the envy of the neighborhood. But from experience, we caution the man who has other plans for Nurserymen often have their own mixes prepared to specification. These run from mixes you can plant primarily for looks to those you want for hard use. Be sure to specify.

The old faithful of most lawn mixes is Kentucky Blue Grass. Slow to germinate, it is both fairly fine bladed and tough. On one side are the finer Fescues and Bents; on the other, coarse Fescues and Ryegrasses. The latter two are fast growing and quick on the rebound when damaged by hard use.

Substitutes for these are Clover and Dichondra. Clover is not a good choice in planting by itself, but scattered into the seed bed, it often stays green even when other grasses brown off through neglect. Dichondra is for use by itself, fairly tough and seldom in need of mowing.

Bacteria Develops Resistance to Penicillin

(Presented as a public service by the Foothill District of the Los Angeles County Medical Assn.)

Acute venereal disease may not be a medical chapter of the past, a Wisconsin physician reported in a recent issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association.

Dr. Ernst Epstein of Marshfield, Wis., based his conclusion on a study which indicated that the bacterium causing one form of venereal disease—gonorrhea—is developing a resistance to therapeutic penicillin injections.

He pointed out that it previously had been assumed that acute gonorrhea had largely been banished by penicillin. As a result of this study the situation is now changed. "No longer can acute gonorrhea be considered a light-hearted disease with certain cure and less disability than a common cold," he said.

DR. EPSTEIN'S opinions are based on a study conducted in 1958 while he was serving as a captain in the Army medical corps in Korea. The study included the examination and treatment of 146 servicemen infected with gonorrhea. They were given a series of five daily injections of penicillin. Results indicate a 20 per cent failure to cure the disease.

Commenting on this fact, Dr. Epstein said, "A 20 per cent treatment failure rate is both unusual and unsatisfactory." Previous studies cited by the physician indicated a treatment failure between 1 and 5 per cent.

The doctor discarded reinfection as a factor in the high percentage of failure. He said, "All patients were restricted to Army compounds for two weeks and carefully questioned regarding further sexual contacts. These considerations do not rule out the possibility that an occasional treatment failure was the result of reinfection. However, they do eliminate reinfection as an explanation for the 20 per cent failure rate."

DR. EPSTEIN attached "grave significance" to the study. "It is probably only a matter of time until penicillin resistance will be met on an increasing scale all over the world."

To combat this new immunity, Dr. Epstein called for more careful and prolonged follow-up studies coupled with other exhaustive tests to find a cure.

Dr. Epstein is now engaged in the private practice of medicine in Marshfield.
